CEC NH SUMMER CONFERENCE 2025

“Mastering IEP Development for Student Success”

Please join CEC-NH and Educational Consultant, Terra Geer in this one day training designed to equip educators and related service providers with the essential skills to develop and implement truly connected Individualized Education Programs (IEPs).

When: Wednesday, July 23, 2025 9:30-3pm

Where: Hooksett Library,
31 Mount St Mary's Way
Hooksett, NH 03106

What: Participants will delve into the core principles of student-centered

- planning, collaborative team processes data-driven decision-making
- focusing on the seamless integration of present levels of academic achievement and functional performance
- measurable annual goals
- targeted specially designed instruction and services, and accommodations.

Through practical exercises and real-world case studies, attendees will learn to craft IEPs that accurately reflect student needs, promote meaningful progress, and foster strong partnerships between families and schools, ultimately maximizing student success.

2025 NHASEA Winter Conference Highlights

Both of the presenters, Chase Mielke and Curtis Hill were fantastic! Chase Mielke's presentation on how to avoid burnout, increase outcomes, and learn to love education again kept everyone engaged. Chase's presentation provided such positive feedback that CEC NH may consider having him return to NH for a professional development opportunity.
