“Empowering Educators to Design and Deliver Effective Accommodations”

Please join CEC-NH and Educational Consultant, Terra Geer in this one day training designed to equip educators with a deep understanding of accommodations and their essential role in promoting equitable access to learning.

When: Wednesday, April 8, 2026
9:00am-3:00pm

Where: LOCATION:
Conway School District Professional Development Center
176A Main St Conway, NH 03818
Details for parking will be sent out with reminder email

What: This dynamic professional learning session equips educators with a deep understanding of accommodations and their essential role in promoting equitable access to learning. Participants will explore legal foundations, practical strategies, and authentic classroom examples that illustrate how accommodations support students with IEPs and 504 Plans. Through collaborative discussion and interactive activities, attendees will practice identifying student needs, selecting appropriate accommodations, and monitoring their effectiveness across instructional settings. By the end of the session, educators will be prepared to write clear, purposeful accommodations to ensure every learner can engage meaningfully with the curriculum.

Cost: Conference cost is $75 for CEC members and $100 for non members.
